

These things really happened, but the purpose of me telling him was my last attempt for him to have some mercy. Both the UCE and CHS turned down my request. I didn't tell UCE verbally. I chickened out. But I thought I was telling him with my eyes.

Did they really care about me? Oh, sorry of course not. But did they really try to know who I was? 9/14/12 was the first time UCE addressed me by my name UCE: So... Alright brother... so... a-adel, right?

Daoud: yeah [209]

The Grand Jury asked Barbara Harner about me

Q He-- I believe he was born-- he was definitely raised here in the United States... [210]

I believe he was born?!

Racial profiling was used. The first FBI report in my case noted that I am Egyptian and Palestinian descent. [211] Why did they even mention this?

The FBI publicly admitted in my case that this plan, the bomb plan wasn't mine and that the 2nd reason for sending UCE was to stop me from Radicalizing people; which SA Najera said is a form of Recruiting people. Radicalizing was defined as "Dawah" by OCE2. OCE2 defined "Dawah" as "propagating Islam." The FBI listed no other reason to send UCE. [211.2]

Take Heed to what I'm saying to you, and don't presume that what I'm saying will be wrong or deceitful, though the things I'm saying to you are outrageous. These were not my plans to blow up a bar and hire someone to assassinate UCE. These were not my plans before I met UCE, OCEs, and Vino. These were not my plans after we met. This was part of their plans to lock me up to stop me from up to stop me from becoming, as they would say, a Radical Islamic cleric who would speak against them. I never even agreed to hire an assassin. These plans were furthered by agents ^{who} were making a living doing this and of a snitch who wanted to go home, and went home after the FBI paid his bond. The FBI claims to stop me from my plan. To have investigated, found out this plan, and stop me. This ~~is~~ is not what happened. If that's not what's being said here, then I do not understand the accusation. Islam itself is deemed the threat, and this is something I've been observing for a long time now. For example, take this clip from the "Aliyona Show.": [From the videos they recorded me watching]

[3/22/11] Back in March we told you about the training of local law enforcement across the country when it comes counterterrorism and spotting homegrown terrorism policies. Now thanks to reporters who went on the inside examined the teachers, the so called experts, we learned that these lessons were incredibly biased and ultimately led to police racial profiling or worse. As journalist Joshua Craz explains: inciting fear into those who wouldn't normally do things like think all Muslims in a negative light. But the [from Aliyona to Joshua Craz] Craz: But the problem when you're teaching someone about Islam if they don't know anything about it is that they go for the guy who makes you laugh the most, or makes you most scared. So some of the saddest scenes that we came across when we were doing this investigation were people who said: You know Joshua I never realized that Islam was a threat until I was in this training. But now I now and now I know to watch out for those guys. So a whole bunch of people who didn't previously fear Islam or worried about it suddenly became incredibly motivated towards becoming vigilantes in their communities. [Aliyona] Well now Spencer Acraman from (UI) Room has uncovered similar types of counter terrorism training on a national level. Acraman acquired a course handbook used to train FBI counter training terrorism training on a national level. Acraman acquired a course handbook used to train FBI counter training officers at the FBI training ground at Quantico, Virginia. And pretty much everything about it should be sending off warning signals. Now the course focuses solely on the threat of terror from Muslims. And encourages trainees to focus on Muslims' religion as the sole factor in determining if they might be a terrorist. And what's worse use of the word 'radical' that isn't even a focus on the handbook.

 Because according to these teachings, even main stream Muslims are terrorist sympathizers. So basically every Muslim likes terrorists according to them. Now the handbook also labels the prophet Muhammad [may Allah bless him and grant him peace] as a cult leader. And the course was taught by William Gothar. This is a man who has said in the past, that Muhammad's mindset is a source for terrorism, and he was also an important figure in the Berber movement. So that, should just give you a little bit of an idea of what we're working with here. Now Gothar (UI) advises that basically all Muslims, even mainstream American Muslims are potential terrorists.
 He also explains that the more devout a Muslim is about his religion the more dangerous they are to the US. Now within the handbook they have this really really really super scientific linegraph that demonstrates (UI) Gothar's ideology by showing that : See Christians and Jews: the more devote they are, well this is the non-violent, the less violent they are, as you can see. But if we look at Islam, Muslims, the more devote they become they basically just stick along the violent line, all the way through. So I think it's pretty safe to assume.. with members of Federal law enforcement being taught that there is no such thing as a moderate Muslim. That's gonna affect the FBI's relationship with the Muslim community. WE told you about several cases where if FBI agents have gone undercover and infiltrate mosques accross the country. and potentially entrap individuals in terror attack plots. And Spencer Acraman explained on Rachel Mado last night these ~~latest~~ latest revelations could further the damage that already strained ties between the Muslim and American communities. - They're very concerned about 2 related issues: which are counter terrorism and civil rights. And those 2 go hand and hand because as you remember Degrade Jimmy Mccwire said on "The Wire" a cop isn't anything without his sources of information. And unless there's community buy in in American Muslim communities and ^{other} ~~other~~ communities around this country, law enforcement can't do its job. It can't learn about what's happening, and it can't be alert to threats.

[Aliyona] Now and the FBI was questioned about this handbook, they just called it Rudimentary and they claim that their practices has since changed. [My note: It has not!] That's despite the fact that these concepts were still being taught in March of this year. So this little glimpse inside some the downright offnsive, if not incredibly stupid training practices of the FBI. Is it time for the government to take action? Call for some change? Now a few politicians already have [Note: What happened?! They were probably getting drunk laughing-hahaha we aint changing SH*T!!] and this was actually before the FBI training materials were leaked [because they knew!]. Senator⁶ Joe Leaverman and Susan Collins have questioned the qualification of those training our Feds and counter terrorism. But now that this information is out there the FBI's probably be forced to do serious damage control [212]

A good example of this is⁶ when the FBI interviewed the Sheikh of my masjid, Abdool Rahman Khan about me. Khan explained how grateful he was to go to an FBI Citizens' gathering, and was about to report me, but chose not to. He saw a warning sign a year ago when I started wearing a turban! He said, "People who wear turbans do not want to embrace the values of society." and "Our religion does not wear this." [213] Not only is⁶ it part of our Religion because it's a practice of our prophet, may Allah bless him and grant him peace, and the practice of the first Muslims, but that idea that wearing a turban being a Red flag was from the FBI Citizens meeting, and Aliyona was right!

No body said I had an actual plan before meeting UCE. No body. Not even UCE. [214]

"Daoud began planning an attack August⁶ 2012" [215]
 "the only specific plan Jaafer was aware of was the planning of a bomb in a nightclub" [i.e. "from approximately August⁶ 10th to August 20th" of 2012 "in the mosque"] [215.2]

And these were quotes from people they tried to make my co-defendants- one of them was under 18- and even when the FBI tell⁵ one over and over to say something against me, the only plan they found was the one that they made! August⁶ 10th 2012 is⁶ when UCE finally convinced me to join him in his plan. [215.3]

[On 8/14/12, I told OCE that I'm worried about my security.

8/16/12 I tell him I don't think I can do an attack. [216] By 8/19/12 UCE induced me again and gave the ultimatum. [217] It's evident also with interviews of the would-be co-defendants:

"Daoud promised Tounisi he would not do an attack but would instead just go to school at the University of Medina" [218] This was the same time of the sting at the end of Ramadan.

"During Ramadan, Daoud and Tounisi talked to two Imams about violent Jihad. After the discussion with the Imams, Daoud and Tounisi both told Jaafer that they no longer planned on conducting a violent attack in the United States"[219]

Al Hemdu-lillah. Tr. All praise is due to Allah, that I was the only one who kept contact with the UCE, and he was only able to induce and entrap me and not them. And what are the odds that neither of them were ^{ever} charged with Weapons of Mass Destruction? What are the odds that I was never again charged with attempting another bombing, but I was accused, once again, for "Recruiting people" aka Dawah?[220] Even to the Gangster Snitch Before Christmas, I said:

Daoud: I don't wanna get in trouble (UI) the reason I didn't want to do anything here , right? It's not that I don't believe in it, it's that, I didn't(laughs) want to end up here! [221]

Daoud: The thing is I don't I don't mind that much as long as it's something uh, under like my capabilities. You know it's very small capabilities right now

UCE: We would do it together, brother

Daoud: Right. But I mean, if you give me, If I could do something that uh, less suspicious, under my capabilities or with assistance.

Okay? And I don't get caught, Cause if I get caught... [Note: notice, that this is something the UCE is "giving me" and he refuses to give me anything else. He could have gave me something totally legal]

UCE: But it...

Daoud: ... my parents will go like, they'll flip over , man . They'll be like..

UCE: ... I, I...

Daoud:... Sonic the Hedgehog ,man. They'll be like...

UCE: ... I know it. I don't want...

Daoud: ... they'll be like, where is the, what is it to be off the flies? No, man... they'll be like, they'll be like, an an Energizer bunny is broken or something like that (laughs)

UCE: You, you and I will do it together. [doesn't that remind you of VIno? "Cuz it's going!"] So we're not gonna get caught Daoud: So, you nkow...

UCE: I I swear

Daoud:... how not to get caught? [222]

"He wanted to talk about politics and religion with a friend online or eventually one much older than himself. And he was immediately drawn to this agent as someone who valued his religious and political opinions and comments. He continually did what teenage boys do, and that is talk big or in quotes "wolf." Speak about attention getting topics and throw out ideas such as flying cars as the weapon of choice in carrying out violent Jihad. The court does not understand how the government really relied on an article about a flying car from the 1950s to prove its claim that defendant 18 at the time he did this, was somehow looking at that as anything other than bravado " [223]

It's my belief that Coleman, may Allah guide her and set her affairs in order, knew I was entrapped. But the way the system works is that the judge listens to both sides and makes a ruling rather than intervene [I forgot the name of this]. So I don't blame her for my conviction, but my lawyer^s who were insincere advocates. Again, she knew I was induced,

"The possibility that Daoud could be co-opted or persuaded again is one that cannot be ignored. At least not at this time." [224]

Allot of people ask me: Well what if you're per^suaded again? Besides the fact that anyone could be tricked, and the victim of this kind of situation, and blaming the victim is wrong, I say to them that the^y same scenario came to me many times in prison. People tried setting me up for bombings, assassinations, terrorists attacks, escape plots, and the like unsuccessfully. The fact that I could be entrapped, then framed to do something for propagating my Religion [even if this i^s not an official charge- it was the true motive for arresting me], and then coerced and al^so framed for a bogu^s "Murder-for-Hire" case, and still be blamed for it-should shock the conscience. The old code that wa^ss played, for instance. How much money you got? He planned that from the beginning. It's not hard to see.

"this m^att^er is not as complicated and full of drama as you all have made it"[225]

"I ju^st think that what is being done here and you all are turning thi^s into a trial. And you brought your case. He pled guilty pur^suant to Alford. And for you all to think you have to put this much evidence on to support your position, makes me wonder:hmm"[226]

"Clearly he believed he was detonating a bomb that would cause human deaths, and injuries, and would put him in a place of favor with the Prophet Muhammad [may Allah bless him and grant him peace] Allah Himself, or his religion" [227] [these were the beliefs they used to set me up]

"He constantly refers to his parents and his concern for disobeying them. He refers to doing something within his very small capabilities or doing it with assistance. Quote, 'Cause if I get caught, my parents will go like, they'll flip over man. They'll be like Sonic the Hedgehog man.' Asking the directions of religious leaders, but wanting the approval of his friend the UCE.

He clearly stated that he did not know how to build a bomb... He did not know how to build a bomb. He drove around looking like a Ninja Warrior. He showed himself to be passionate about his religion and would appear to do anything with his whole heart." [228]

It makes you think: Why on sentencing and even resentencing, as dangerous as I am supposed to be; Why didn't UCE wear a disguise, or even want one? Was he really afraid of me? [229]

"I've had a sentencing with another terrorism case, and it was nothing like this." [230]

"My focus for this sentencing is Mr. Daoud. As to what he was doing, as to what he thought, how he acted, what his affect was, and yes the agent's testimony comes in somewhat, but I can get that from the transcripts. I don't need his translation. Obviously his translation brought us to this point, and you all relied upon it." [231]

- 211.3. Where the defense of entrapment is at issue, the prosecution must prove beyond reasonable doubt that the defendant was ~~dis~~posed to commit the criminal act prior to fir~~st~~ being approached by government agents. This~~s~~ statement admits no ambiguity. [pg. 2]
For the majority [of Supreme court, Jacobson] however the relevant question was whether the defendant was predi~~s~~posed prior to government's initial contact [pg. 13]
Jacobson ~~also~~ makes explicit what was only implicit in Sherman:

that a person is not predisposed to commit a crime simply because he has the urge or inclination to do so [pg.14]

Furthermore, a person's inclinations and fantasies are out of reach of the government [pg.18][See also pg. 416, 8/23/12 UCE Audio transcript: Daoud: All I have is ideas and crazy fantasies. That's all I have , LN 31-42]

Instead, a defendant who lacks the means to commit the crime when first approached by the government is nonetheless predisposed if he "had the idea for the crime all worked out and lacked merely the present means to commit it, and if the government had not supplied [the means] someone else very well might have [pg. 19] the relevant inquiry was whether Sherman was "ready and willing to sell narcotics;; the Court concluded that "[t]here is no evidence that petitioner himself was in the trade." 356 U.S. at 375 (emphases added). Since then, the Court has said that "the principal element in the defense of entrapment [i]s the defendant's predisposition to commit the crime" - not just any crime. Russell, 411 U.S. at 433 (emphases added) [pg.20-21] the fact that Mayfield, once ensnared, actively participated in it doesn't tell us much about his predisposition . See Evans, 924 F. 2d at 716 (explaining that the defendant "was indeed entrapped, it is irrelevant that the entrapment was so effective as to make him not only willing but an eager participant" [pg.24]

A defendant is predisposed to commit the charged crime if he was ready and willing to but hadn't yet found the means [pg.4] For no officer of the government has the power to authorize the violation of an act of Congress, and no conduct of an officer can excuse the violation. But it does not follow that the court must suffer a detective-made criminal to be punished. To permit that would be tantamount to a ratification by the government of the officers' unauthorized and unjustifiable conduct. Id. at 423-24 [pg.9]

This prosecution should be stopped, not because some right of [the defendant's] has been denied, but in order to protect the government. To protect it from illegal conduct of its officers. To preserve the purity of its courts" Id at 425 [pg.9]

The Court agreed that the evidence established entrapment as a matter of law. Sherman, 356 U.S. at 373 [pg.12]

The premise is that predisposition is not an immutable characteristic or one-way ratchet [pg.12]

the Court explained that the predisposition inquiry focuses on whether the defendant "otherwise would ... have attempted the crime without government intervention" Id. at 376 [pg. 12]

Quotes taken from USA v. Mayfield, 771 F. 3d 417; 2014 U.S. App. LEXIS 21525 No. 11-2439

(1.) So I had to be predisposed prior to being approached by government agents

(2.) Having an urge, inclination, or fantasies about jihad is not predisposition

(3.) This idea of blowing up a bar downtown with a car bomb was not my idea "all worked out" before meeting UCE or even OCEs

(4.) "The crime" is not Jihad. "The crime" is attempting to use a WMD to destroy a building in the US -

(5.) Me agreeing to go at the end with UCE is "irrelevant" to predisposition

(6.) The made up post that I "would make the bomb" if "I could find the required materials" fits perfectly into "if he was ready and willing to but hadn't yet found the means." This is why the lie was crafted this way. Anyone can bring me a pipe or pressure cooker, for the article on "how to make a bomb in the kitchen of your mom" for example. This fake post said that I said I would make "the bomb" from "the article" from Inspire magazine. I had the first 9 issues, that existed at the time. Where, then, is the article on how to make a car bomb?

(7.) By protecting my rights you're really protecting the purity and function of the government, law enforcement, and purity of the court

(8.) Cases can be found as entrapment as a matter of law

(9.) Predisposition is not a one way Ratchet. So because I'm a Radical Muslim, an Islamic Fundamentalist, a terrorist, etc doesn't make me guilty of any offense charged

(10.) So if I'm guilty, this means I really would have blown up a building in the US. If I wasn't confronted in this scenario by the UCE and OCEs, then it is likely that I would still have blown up buildings with a car bomb. This is super far fetched and untrue. UCE asked this question on whether I would do even ^{as opposed to asking specifically if I'd bomb something} just an attack in the U.S, if he wasn't there, and I said no three times (or more actually). US District Court
Northern District of Illinois
Eastern Division

USA	12 CR 723
v.	13 CR 703
Adel Daoud	15 CR 487

Affidavit in Support to the attached document

I hereby affirm that the following facts are true, correct, and complete. That I am of majority age, and competent to state the matters herein. In support Affiant, Adel Daoud, Will state the following:

1. When I was kidnapped by the FBI, I was 170 pounds. Within the first 4 months of incarceration, while in Kankakee county jail, I dropped to about 145-pounds. This was due to them not having a Halal option on the menu
2. I had a habit almost my whole life before being incarcerated, and partly while incarcerated of talking to myself. The quote in the Audio recording⁴ with CHS quoted herein was what I said to myself and was referring to VINO's assassination plot. pg. 22, Ref. 18
3. The "friend" that will get out of jail, that I refer to in the CHS recording is referring to VINO. pg. 31 Ref. 34
4. When I was first kidnapped by the FBI, I thought I would only be in jail for a few days. When the prosecutor said: We can have a trial as soon as March 2013, I thought this was too long. I expected to go to trial, win, and go home quickly because I didn't hurt anyone and I was entrapped by the FBI
5. On 9/14/12 I felt the operation was like a tutorial level to a terrorist version of the game Grand Theft Auto

6. While walking away from the fake car bomb, I remember quickly glancing at it, and thinking, "For whatever reason I can't imagine this thing exploding. I'm trying to but I can't." And I felt that I would see whether or not it was real when we pushed the button

7. I told UCE to hold the detonator, knowing that he was getting out of the bomb car to show me where to park. I told him this because I wanted to tell him something along the lines of: See! I just trusted you with my life! Now, is this a set up? I was too scared to ask him, but I felt I was telling him with my eyes

8. When UCE on about 9/5/12 would not respond properly to a prayer I made for him, I felt suspicious of him. This is why I asked his "cousin" if he knew the prayer. I felt like this very well might be a set up. I didn't know what to do besides telling him to press the button together, by holding the detonator with me. Which he did. I felt it was sinful to be suspicious of a Muslim especially UCE who claimed to be a Mujahid who fought in Afghanistan. This is why I would try to ignore my suspicions.

9. My last thought was, "No matter what happens, at least I won't be a hypocrite." I felt that even if this turns out to be a set up, then it was still better to go to jail rather than go to Hell. I felt I would go to Hell forever as a hypocrite if I didn't go with UCE because UCE told me to only come if I believe in Jihad, which was an ultimatum to my Muslim faith

10. On 9/14/12, while UCE was driving me downtown, I thought, "Why am I here? He could have done this whole ^{operation} ~~thing~~ by himself? Why am I here? Maybe it's like a father taking his son to work? But that doesn't make sense. I know they hate us, but they don't hate ^u~~u~~ that much... Why would they go through all this crap just to set me up?" By "they" I meant the U.S government, and by "^u~~u~~" I meant Muslims. I remember these things because this was in my last moments of freedom, and I've been telling people about my case since I was kidnapped by the FBI

11. The Bomb plot and Murder for hire plot were never my plots or ideas

12. I thought, before being arrested, that if UCE was really an agent, or if any agent set me up to arrest me, that the agent himself would arrest me. Or that I would be locked up in front of him. And I imagined the spy in such a scenario, with his hands crossed, then pointing his ^h~~h~~ finger at me, laughing evilly, "Hahab!"@ ha ha! I got you now!" When the FBI made it look like we were both getting locked up, I really believed UCE was getting arrested.

13. One of the reasons I ^u~~u~~ed to argue that maybe it was not a set up , for the bomb case, was that if the police wanted to lock me up for my religious^h beliefs, especially pertaining Jihad, then they wouldn't have to set me up with a fake bomb because I really told UCE my beliefs and religious opinions on these things. So logically, to me, I would have already been arrested.

14. I was hoping Vino would feel bad and not go through with making me make the "Uncle Mike" call, especially when I told him that my mom and other^h were telling me to avoid getting in more trouble

15. Since I've been locked up, besides vino, many people tried to set me up including the C.O's and the prisoner^h. One CO at MCC had the nametag "Muhammad" and tried to have conversations with me. He lied about how much Quran he read regularly and I noticed, so I walked away. He never came back to work, and was new at the time this happened. ^{other} ~~Other~~ people have ^{tried} ~~try~~ unsuccessfully to ^{set} ~~Get~~ me up for things including but not limited to: assassinations, bombings, terrorist attacks, or escape plots.

16. I met another person with a similar terror case as me in the Medical Facility in Springfield, ~~Missouri~~ ^{Missouri}, named Sami Osmakac who I saw during recreation. Osmakac expressed to me that he was possessed by a Jinn and /or ~~inflicted~~ ^{inflicted} with magic after Christians came to his door and debated with him about religion. They decided to exchange reading material. He gave them a Quran translation, and they gave him their pamphlet. He threw out the pamphlet and started getting delu^sional. He told me he was supposed to use a AK47 in the ^{set} ~~Get~~ up, gernades, an explosive vest, etc, and I told him, "Bro?! How can you use all that ^{stuff} ~~stuf~~ at the same time?! That's impo^ssible!" He laughed, " I was incompetent," and told me about the pros and cons to his psych medication.

I was playing crazy and I wanted to know if he was too. He was clear to me in that he was not faking and told me the above scenario. He also told me in another pri^son he thought it was Friday everyday and that it was the Day of Judgement every day, ^{that he would} pray naked the Islamic prayer 5 times a day, and this was due to his delusion. I myself would never do this to play crazy, because ^{such} ~~Such~~ a prayer would not be accepted in Islamic law. I really believe Sami was not competent mentally during the time he was set up.
